Hello Students of Theatre!

Welcome to the production experience at Northeastern. The objective of this handbook is to promote constructive communication and offer easily accessible information for all students involved in Department of Theatre productions. It provides an overview of the various roles of the production process, explaining and clarifying the expectations, duties, and responsibilities. However, successfully working in theatre requires flexibility, and therefore, these guidelines are not absolute! Every production process is unique and communication throughout is essential. This handbook is designed to start everyone on the same page. If you have questions regarding your position, please ask me. Additionally, this is a living document that is revised as needed and input from students is welcomed.

Casting is assigned by the directors of a semester’s productions. Once casting is announced, the R&P Faculty and Staff Committee assemble and assign production teams based on your academic needs, as well as previous experience, completed coursework, skills, and personal ambitions. Specific requests for production assignments from students are given consideration, but cannot always be honored. If you would like to participate in a production and do not intend to audition, please contact me prior to auditions so that we may discuss your interests. Our goal, over the course of your time at NU, is to provide opportunities with a variety of creative experiences, making theatre with increasing complexity.

Let us go forth, creating great theatre and keeping the spirit of collaboration alive and well at Northeastern!

Fondly,
Marti Mcintosh
Production Manager
Table of Contents

Mission .......................................................................................................................... 4

Overview ..................................................................................................................... 5

Production Role Table ............................................................................................... 7

Role Descriptions and Guidelines:

Production Experience 1 ....................................................................................... 8

Production Experience 2 ....................................................................................... 11

Rehearsal & Production ....................................................................................... 15

Capstone Rehearsal & Production ........................................................................... 19

Actor Guidelines ....................................................................................................... 22
Mission

The Northeastern Department of Theatre is a community dedicated to creativity, collaboration, and excellence in the pursuit of innovative ways to see, to investigate, and to make theatre for a new generation. We offer students a transformative theatre education by aligning performance and production with academic inquiry and professional experiential learning. Our multidimensional students develop a unique understanding of professionalism and entrepreneurship as the foundations of meaningful careers. We embrace diverse methods, philosophies, and measures of success. Through values of generosity, integrity, respect, and rigor, we explore theatre as a living art that engages with our global society and the moment in which we live.

Students who graduate from Northeastern University with a degree in theatre will be able to:

1. Apply a broad and deep knowledge of theatre as an art form to their work, including:
   - Foundational skills in performance, design, and production
   - Comprehensive understanding of theatre history, theory, and literature
   - Oral, visual, written expression of ideas with clarity and originality

2. Make theatre with integrity
   - Create or interpret a play
   - Collaborate generously
   - Apply a personalized technique to the process of making imaginative, innovative theatre

3. Make informed choices as theatrical entrepreneurs through professional readiness

4. Reflect on the cultural, social, and ethical impact and contributions that theatre has made to societies and communities
Overview

In reflection of our commitment to experiential learning, the Department of Theatre believes it is essential for all theatre students to be actively involved in making theatre outside of the classroom each year of study.

The four experiences required for majors known as Production Experience (PE) and Rehearsal and Production (R&P) provide course credit to students working on theatre department productions each semester, both onstage and backstage.

There is a progression of courses that fall under the category of Making Theatre. Theatre majors must complete all four:

- THTR 1100 Production Experience 1 (1 SH)
  - recommended for first year, fall semester
- THTR 2000 Production Experience 2 (1 SH)
  - recommended for second year
- THTR 3700 Rehearsal and Production (4 SH)
  - recommended for third year
- THTR 4702 Capstone Rehearsal & Production (4 SH)
  - recommended for fourth year and in fulfillment of the writing intensive in the major

Combined majors must complete three:

- THTR 1100 Production Experience 1 (1 SH)
- THTR 2000 Production Experience 2 (1 SH)
- THTR 4702 Capstone Rehearsal & Production (4 SH)

Generally, theatre minors must complete one:

- THTR 1100 Production Experience 1 (1 SH)

PE1 and PE2 must be taken as a production (crew) role.

R&P and Capstone R&P may be taken as either a production or a performance role.

As students progress through these courses and gain experience, the roles and responsibilities grow. Some responsibilities have academic prerequisites and the advanced assignments require prerequisite assignments. For example, before you can work as a Stage Manager, you must first have worked on at least one Department of Theatre (DoT) production as an Assistant Stage Manager. (Experience outside of Northeastern may be taken into consideration to waive some prerequisites).

Some production assignments may also be required for the following courses: Technical Theatre 1, Technical Theatre 2, Lighting Design, Scenic Design and Costume Construction.
Academic Requirements

This handbook addresses the requirements and qualifications of various positions on DoT productions. If you are participating in a DoT production as part of your course requirement for an R&P, PE, or design/tech course, you must fulfill all of the requirements for that course as outlined on its syllabus in addition to what is laid out in this handbook. Please use both your course syllabus and this handbook as guiding tools when receiving academic credit for your production work. You are strongly encouraged to consult the faculty member administering the course and/or the Production Manager with any and all questions you may have.

Scheduling

Please make sure you understand the time commitment required for your position. With very few exceptions, all Technical and Dress Rehearsals are required for students involved in DoT productions. If you are unclear about the time commitment of your position please ask the Production Manager.

All production calendars and schedules are posted on the call board in the theatre office and should be made available on Blackboard for R&P and PE courses. Additionally, production stage managers communicate daily schedules via email with cast and crew. If you are working on a DoT show in any capacity, you are expected to check your email daily. If you have any questions about a production’s build, rehearsal, or performance schedule, please consult your direct supervisor, the Stage Manager, or the Production Manager.

Production Positions

The following chart shows a list of possible production roles and what course they would be performed under.

Please note that all of these positions are subject to individual production needs. Not every production needs all of these positions and some productions may have opportunities that are not listed in this handbook. When these situations are identified, the student performing the role works with the Production Manager and faculty, as well as the creative team for the production, to plan and execute the necessary tasks.
Production Role Table

THTR 1100 Production Experience 1
Complete one of the following:
- Scene Shop Build Crew
- Costume Build Crew
- Deck Run Crew
- Wardrobe Run Crew
- Board Operator
  (Light/Sound/Projection)
- Spotlight Operator

THTR 2000 Production Experience 2
Complete one of the following:
- Scene Shop Build Crew
- Costume Build Crew
- Electrics Crew
- Assistant Prop Master
- Assistant Master Electrician
- Assistant Stage Manager
- Scenic Charge
- Hair / Make-up Coordinator
- House Manager
- Workshop Production Coordinator
- Small Sound Design

THTR 3700 Rehearsal & Production
Complete one of the following:
- Actor in an Ensemble or Featured Role
- Master Electrician
- Prop Master
- Scenic Charge
- Hair / Make-up Coordinator
- Assistant Stage Manager
- Stage Manager
- Assistant Production Manager
- House Manager
- Workshop Production Coordinator
- Assistant Technical Director
- Assistant Designer

THTR 4702 Capstone Rehearsal & Production
Complete one of the following:
- Actor in a Featured Role
- Stage Manager
- Prop Master
- Assistant Production Manager
- Assistant Designer
- Designer
- Marketing Coordinator
- Assistant Director/Dramaturg
- Director

Please note that other positions are possible, as negotiated with your capstone faculty advisor and the Production Manager.
Role Descriptions and Guidelines

In addition to the specific descriptions below, there are certain rules of conduct that all production students are expected to observe as professionals for the dignity of the theatre profession and the welfare of all involved. Though rehearsal and performance can be exciting, the focus is on the honorable work of creating art, which requires attention, discipline, and respect from every member of the company. In other words – don’t be the person who lets down your team!

THTR 1100 – PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE 1

Scene Shop Build Crew
Build crew members assist the Scenic Designer, Scenic Charge, Prop Master, and Technical Director in the acquisition and construction of scenic and property elements for all DoT productions in a semester. Duties include:
• Present and ready to work at all scheduled work calls
• Report to Technical Director
• Develop construction skills
• Learn to use all scene shop equipment safely following shop standards and safety policies.
• Construct, paint, repair, and modify scenery and props for department productions
• Complete assignments from Technical Director or crew head to best of your abilities
• Aid other departments in tasks as necessary

Costume Build Crew
Costume build crew members assist the Costume Designer and Costume Shop Supervisor in the acquisition and construction of costumes for all DoT productions in a semester. Duties include:
• Present and ready to work at all scheduled work calls
• Report to Costume Shop Supervisor
• Develop hand and sewing machine skills
• Learn to use all the costume shop equipment safely
• Construct and alters costumes for department productions
• Learn patterning and cutting skills
• Help with costume crafts, dyeing, and distressing depending on shows needs
Deck Run Crew
Run crew members make the backstage scenic and props action happen, under the direction of the stage management team and with guidance from the Prop Masters, Scenic Charges, Scenic Designer, and Technical Director. Duties include:

- Present at Crew Run–Thru rehearsal, all technical rehearsals, dress rehearsals, load–ins, training sessions, work notes, and performances at call times designated by stage management.
- Report to the Stage Manager and Assistant Stage Manager.
- Organize, preset, and shift stage props and scenery during the tech and dress rehearsals and performances.
- Maintain the backstage props tables, prepare any food props for the performance, and clean props after the performance.
- After the rehearsals and performances, make sure stage is clean and props are returned to their proper storage place.
- Ensure props retain the look that was originally designed and handle small repairs as needed; notify stage management of any damaged or missing props.
- After the run of the show, attend strike and help return props to storage.
- Assist other departments and perform other duties as needed

Wardrobe Run Crew
Wardrobe crew members assist with the preset, maintenance, and cleaning of costumes throughout the performance run of one department production. Duties include:

- Present at Crew Run–Thru rehearsal, all technical rehearsals, dress rehearsals, load–ins, training sessions, work notes, and performances at call times designated by stage management.
- Report to the Stage Manager, Assistant Stage Manager, and Costume Shop Supervisor.
- Track all costume pieces by checking in wardrobe before and after performances.
- Preset any costume pieces back stage or in quick change booths before performance.
- Facilitate communication to/from cast, creative team, and production team.
- Help actors get into their costumes during the pre–show as needed, including helping with corsets, back closures and cumbersome costumes.
- Help with quick changes, hair and make–up.
- Gather costume pieces from back stage and quick change booths after performance.
- Is alert during the production, including being ready in advance for a quick change.
- Ensure the actors are wearing the correct costume and correctly at all times.
- Perform small costume repairs and notifies costume shop for bigger repairs.
- Monitor wardrobe supplies and communicates with Costume Shop so that replacements can be ordered/purchased.
- Ensure that actors hang up their costumes correctly after the performance.
- Gather and start laundry at end of performance.
- Ensure dressing rooms are locked with lights out at end of performances.
Board Operator
Includes multiple possible positions: Light Board Operator, Sound Board Operator, and Projection System Operator. The Board Operator is responsible for executing cues as called by the Stage Manager throughout all technical rehearsals and performances. The Board Op is responsible for learning the operation of the board/system, including how to troubleshoot the equipment if there is a problem. Duties include:

- Present at Crew Run–Thru rehearsal, all technical rehearsals, dress rehearsals, load–ins, training sessions, work notes, and performances at call times designated by stage management.
- Report to stage management as well as Master Electrician, designer, and Technical Director
- Participate in strike at conclusion of production
- Assist in maintenance of production elements throughout run of production
- Perform nightly equipment check upon arrival at the theatre and resolves any problems

Spotlight Operator
The Spotlight Operator is responsible for executing spotlight cues as called by the Stage Manager throughout all technical rehearsals and performances. The Spotlight Op is responsible for learning the operation of the spotlight, including how to troubleshoot the equipment if there is a problem. Duties include:

- Present at Crew Run–Thru rehearsal, all technical rehearsals, dress rehearsals, load–ins, training sessions, work notes, and performances at call times designated by stage management.
- Report to stage management as well as Master Electrician
- Assist in maintenance of production elements throughout run of production
- Participate in strike at conclusion of production
THTR 2000 – PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE 2

Scene Shop and Costume Build Crews (see descriptions on pg. 8)

Electric Crew
Electric crew members are responsible for hanging, cabling, and focusing lighting equipment for all DoT shows in a semester. Electric crew members work directly under the Master Electrician and Electrics Supervisor for training on equipment safety, materials, and policies. Duties include:

- Attend Pre-Hang, Hang, Focus, Work Notes, and Strike sessions.
- Present and ready to work at all scheduled work calls.
- Follow department standards and safety policies.
- Complete assignments from Master Electrician, Assistant Master Electrician, Electrics Supervisor, Assistant Lighting Designer, and Lighting Designer to best of your abilities.
- Aid other departments in tasks as necessary.

Prerequisites:
- Completed or is currently enrolled in Technical Theatre 1 and/or Lighting Design

Assistant Prop Master
The APM assists the Prop Master in the acquisition and deployment of props for a specific DoT production. In particular, the APM helps the Prop Master train the run crew in the proper use and storage of props and handles ongoing repairs and replenishment during the production run. Duties include:

- Attend all technical rehearsals, dress rehearsals, and designer runs unless otherwise directed by the Prop Master.
- Assist in researching, building, buying, borrowing, and altering props.
- Responsible for all furniture and set dressing and all working props under the guidance of and in conjunction with the Props Master and Technical Director.
- Supervise student crews.
- Neatly maintain stock props in storage areas.
- Attends all production meetings and weekly meetings with the Production Manager.
- Check daily Stage Manager rehearsal and performance reports for notes concerning props, furniture or set dressing pieces that need to be procured, repaired or replaced.
- Perform other related duties as assigned.

Prerequisites:
- Completed or is currently enrolled in Technical Theatre 1
Assistant Master Electrician
The Assistant Master Electrician is responsible for assisting the ME in the successful hang, focus, implementation, and strike of a lighting design. Duties include:

- Attend every electrics pre-hang, hang, focus, dry tech rehearsal, full tech rehearsal, notes call, and Dress rehearsal
- Help manage and train electrics crews for hang, focus, and strike
- Trains board op in channel check procedure and remains on call for problems on performance nights
- Provide maintenance to equipment throughout run of performances
- Attend strike and restocks electrics equipment at conclusion of performances
- Meet weekly with Production Manager during preproduction process

Prerequisites:
- Completed or is currently enrolled in Technical Theatre 1 and/or Lighting Design

Assistant Stage Manager
The ASM is the Stage Manager's partner in organizing rehearsals and running performances. Duties include:

- Present at every rehearsal, performance, and production meeting
- Prepare and restoring rehearsal hall or performance space before and after every rehearsal and performance
- Generate and maintain paperwork necessary to realization and execution of production including the prop list, costume plot, and run sheets for props and wardrobe crew
- Attend weekly stage management meetings with Production Manager
- Oversee and manage all on-deck activities of cast and crew during technical rehearsals and performances
- Organize show paperwork and digital files into a prompt book to be turned in to the Production Manager at the conclusion of the production

Prerequisites:
- Completed Technical Theatre 1

Scenic Charge
The Scenic Charge, with guidance from the Scenic Designer and Technical Director, is essentially a scenic painter and decorator who is responsible for executing the set designer’s renderings concerning color, texture, and dressing. This position is made available when identified as a necessity by the Scenic Designer and Production Manager. Depending on the scale of the project, the position may be for one specific production or may be a semester long position.

- Attend all production meetings, work note sessions, technical rehearsals, and dress rehearsals as well as strike.
- Coordinate schedule, crew, and material needs with Technical Director
- Work with prop master on large painting and dressing projects
- Meet regularly with Technical Director and scenic designer for guidance, tutorials, and progress updates
- Maintain and repair dressing and paints throughout run of production
• Restore theatre architecture to flat black after the strike of a production (ie. Floors, columns, wall, etc.)

Prerequisites:
• Completed Technical Theatre 1 and Intro to Design
• Worked as an Assistant Prop master or on a scenic build crew

Hair / Make-up Coordinator (see description pg. 16)

House Manager
The House Manager is responsible for ensuring the audience has a safe, relaxed, and pleasant experience for all DoT productions for a full semester. The House Manager hosts the audience, coordinates with the box office and stage management, and oversees the ushers. Duties include:
• Attend invited dress rehearsal and all performances
• Report to the Theatre Operations Specialist
• Manage scheduling, coordinating, and training of volunteer ushers
• Maintain the cleanliness of the house before and after performances
• Prepare and maintain any necessary performance postings and signage
• Audience management, including reserved and late seating, opening and closing the house, and guidance to restrooms
• Collect and scan tickets and give the house count to stage management

Prerequisites:
• Performed in or worked on crew of a DoT production
• Completed Technical Theatre 1
Workshop Production Coordinator

The WPC, like a Stage Manager, is responsible for organizing rehearsals and running performances, but for non-mainstage productions and projects. Workshops can be short-term, like a week-long intensive, or long-term, like a class-based project, e.g. Devised Theatre. This position may include responsibilities and opportunities outside of the realm of a typical stage manager, such as assistant directing or designing, marketing, dramaturgy, etc. Duties include but are not limited to:

- Present at every rehearsal, performance, and production meeting as well as notes sessions as needed
- Prepare and restore (including unlocking and locking) rehearsal hall or performance space before and after every rehearsal and performance
- Facilitate communication to and from the cast, creative team, production team, and crew including rehearsal and performance reports and schedules
- Generate and maintain paperwork necessary to the realization and execution of the production
- Attend regularly scheduled meetings with Production Manager
- Manage run crew including board operators, spot light operators, wardrobe crew, and props crew during technical rehearsals and performances
- Call all cues during technical and dress rehearsals and performances, and maintain the production over the course of the run, delivering notes to actors as needed and informing the director of any problems
- Organize show paperwork and digital files into a prompt book to be turned in to the Production Manager at the conclusion of the production

Prerequisites:

- Completed Technical Theatre 1
- Acted as an Assistant Stage Manager on a DoT production

Small Sound Design (see Designer description on pg. 19)
Actor (see Actor Guidelines on pg. 22)

Master Electrician
The Master Electrician is responsible for leading the successful hang, focus, implementation and strike of the lighting design. The ME is also responsible for managing and supervising any Assistant Master Electricians assigned to the production. Duties include:

- Present at every electrics crew call, dry tech rehearsal, full tech rehearsal, notes call, and dress rehearsal
- Attend strike and restocks electrics equipment at conclusion of performances
- Evaluate light plot for equipment needs
- Check stock for needed gels, frames, gobos, instruments, etc.
- Notify Production Manager and Technical Director of equipment/materials that need to be purchased/rented
- Communicate to lighting designer understanding of the plot and asks any questions
- Meet weekly with Production Manager during preproduction process

Prerequisites:
- Completed Technical Theatre 1 and Lighting Design
- Acted as Assistant Master Electrician on a DoT production

Prop Master
Responsible for construction and acquisition of props needed for rehearsals and performances of productions. The PM (along with an APM, if present) helps train the run crew in the proper use and storage of props and handles ongoing repairs and replenishment during the production run. Duties include:

- Attend all production meetings and technical and dress rehearsals
- In consultation with the scenic designer, director and stage management, determine props needed considering script, time period of show, and action
- Communicate budgetary needs with TD and Production Manager
- Collect Prop related expense receipts and turn in to Production Manager
- Communicate with stage manager and director to ensure props are available when needed
- Communicate with actors correct handling and use of props
- Attend strike and return props to appropriate storage area and make sure Props closet is clean and clear at strike

Prerequisites:
- Completed Technical Theatre 1
- Acted as Assistant Prop Master or Workshop Coordinator on a DoT production
Scenic Charge (see description on pg. 12–13)

Hair/Make-up Coordinator

The Hair/Make-up Coordinator is a design and run position that is only available when identified as a necessity by the Costume Designer and Production Manager. With guidance from the Costume Designer, the Hair/Make-up Coordinator creates and implements the design of hair and/or make-up for a production. Duties include:

- Attend all production meetings, tech rehearsals, dress rehearsals, and performances
- Attend strike and restock all hair/makeup equipment at conclusion of production
- Report to and meet weekly with Costume Designer and Costume shop supervisor
- Source, budget, and procure supplies, with support from Costume Shop Supervisor
- Manage hair/make-up budget, retain receipts and turn in to the Production Manager
- Train and manage hair/make-up run crew
- With assistance of crew, execute hair/make-up design for all technical and dress rehearsals as well as performances
- Maintain quality and cleanliness of hair/make-up equipment throughout the run

Prerequisites:

- Completed Technical Theatre 1
- Completed Intro to Design
- Worked on a wardrobe run crew or in the costume shop on a costume build crew
Assistant Stage Manager (see description on pg. 12)

Stage Manager
The Stage Manager is responsible for organizing rehearsals and running performances. S/he is the hub of the rehearsal and performance process, the point person for any and all questions, the grease in the production wheels and the master communicator for the team. Duties include:

• Present at every rehearsal, performance, and production meeting
• Prepare and restore (including unlocking and locking) rehearsal hall or performance space before and after every rehearsal and performance
• Facilitate communication to and from the cast, creative team, production team, and crew including rehearsal and performance reports and schedules
• Generate and maintain paperwork necessary to the execution of the production
• Attend weekly stage management meetings with Production Manager
• Manage run crew including board operators, spot light operators, wardrobe crew, and props crew during technical rehearsals and performances
• Call all cues during technical and dress rehearsals and performances, and maintains the production over the course of the run, delivering notes to actors as needed and informing the director of any problems
• Organize show paperwork and digital files into a prompt book to be turned in to the Production Manager at the conclusion of the production

Prerequisites:
• Completed Technical Theatre 1
• Acted as Assistant Stage Manager on a DoT production

Assistant Production Manager
The APM aids the Production Manager with oversight of production elements on Department of Theatre productions for an entire semester. Duties may include:

• Present at every production meeting; take notes and prepare notes for publication and distribution
• Present at all technical and dress rehearsals
• Attend weekly meetings with Master Electricians, Prop Masters, Stage Managers and Workshop Coordinators as able
• Create and maintain production calendars and load-in and tech schedules
• Organize and execute DoT production auditions
• Photocopy audition and rehearsal materials

Prerequisites:
• Completed Technical Theatre 1
• Worked as a run or build crew member on a DoT production
Assistant Technical Director
The Assistant Technical Director works directly with the Technical Director on day to day tasks, helps supervise the crew and builds and installs scenery. Other responsibilities include:

- Attend Production Meetings as determined necessary by TD
- Attend all work calls, tech weekend and strike
- Ensure that build crew engage in safe working practices with tools and equipment by setting an example
- Assign jobs to build crew according to their knowledge and experience after discussion with TD
- Inform TD of tool, supply, and material needs
- Assist TD in training build crew in the proper use of tools, equipment and construction methods
- Insure workspace is clean, clear and ready for rehearsal at end of build day
- Report any missing/broken equipment to TD

Prerequisites:
- Completed Technical Theatre 1
- Worked on a build crew for a DoT production

Assistant Designer
The Assistant Designer works and communicates directly with the Designer that they are assisting to aid in research and sourcing, physicalizing concepts in the form of sketches, lists, design drawings, ground plans, paint elevations, sound samples and models, and share ideas and concepts with the rest of the production team to ensure a unified vision. Please note that this role requires a time commitment in the semester or summer before the semester of production. Duties include:

- Attend concept meetings as needed by the Designer
- Attend all meetings and scheduled events pertaining to production including all tech rehearsals and dress rehearsals, load-in, strike, and work notes sessions
- Read and interpret the given script
- Communicate with Designer directly
- Adhere to schedule as set by Production Manager
- Answer questions and concerns throughout the design process as determined by Designer
- Be an active, constructive member of the design team

Prerequisites:
- Completed Technical Theatre 1 and Intro to Design
THTR 4702 – CAPSTONE REHEARSAL AND PRODUCTION

Actor (see Actor Guidelines on pg. 22)
Stage Manager (see description on pg. 17)
Prop Master (see description on pg. 15)
Assistant Production Manager (see description on pg. 17)
Assistant Designer (see description on pg. 18)

Designer
The Designer works and communicates with the Director, Production Manager, all other members of the design team as well as all other members of staff and students as necessary to achieve and execute a design specific to their field (Scenic, Lighting, Costumes, Props, Sound, Projections). Please note that this role requires a time commitment in the semester or summer before the semester of production. Duties include:

- Attend and be an active participant in all meetings and scheduled events pertaining to production
- Present at all tech and dress rehearsals
- Participate in load-in, strike and work notes
- Read and interpret the given script
- Communicate with director to ensure a unified vision
- Adhere to schedule as set by Production Manager
- Present ideas and designs in clear manner to all members of production team
- Submit preliminary and final drawings/sketches/lists as determined by Production Manager
- Answer questions and concerns throughout the design process
- Work closely with the Technical Director and other technical staff on the implementation of the design, particularly during the tech rehearsal process

Prerequisites:
- Completed Technical Theatre 1 and the relevant design course (lighting, scenic, costume, sound, projection). Some exceptions may be made for the latter two areas.
- Acted as Assistant Designer on a DoT production

Marketing Coordinator
The marketing coordinator works with the Theatre Operations Specialist to create and execute a strategy for reaching student, faculty, and staff audiences. This is a semester long capstone production position. Please note that this role requires a time commitment in the semester or summer before the semester of production. Duties include:

- Report to and meet weekly with the Theatre Operations Specialist
- Identify and create unique marketing opportunities on various platforms
- Coordinate marketing participation with cast members and stage management
- Assist with graphic design for posters, cards, screens, and other signage
- Execute playbills including content, layout, and printing
- Contact media outlets on campus and secure press opportunities
- Generates social media activity
Prerequisites:
- Participated in a DoT Production
- Completed Script to Stage and Performing Arts Administration or a relevant marketing course
- Completed a Co-op or internship in theatre administration
- Graphic design experience and knowledge

Assistant Director/Dramaturg
The AD/Dramaturg is responsible for supporting the work of the director and providing contextual research on the production for the director, designers, cast, and audience. Centrally involved in all aspects of the rehearsal process, he/she must be self-motivated, discreet, and proactive in creating opportunities to participate in the process. Please note that this role requires a time commitment in the semester or summer before the semester of production. Duties include:
- Attend all rehearsals and production meetings as defined by the director
- Attend all technical rehearsals, proving support for the director and facilitating communication and problem-solving
- Research and create a dramaturgical packet with an overview of the play's history, author, themes, historical and social context, and glossary of terms and references
- Create a rehearsal hall display of images inspired by the play
- Provide additional research or textual clarification as needed by the director or cast during the rehearsal process
- Write program notes and provides illustrative images based on the research above, in consultation with the director and Theatre Operations Specialist
- Share interpretive ideas and insights with the director based on his/her preferences and rehearsal technique; refrain from giving notes directly to actors
- Assist the Stage Manager in rehearsals as needed
- Take notes for the director and distribute them to the cast as needed
- Contribute to company morale through professionalism and positive attitude
- Plan, schedule, and host one ReAct post-play discussion with the audience, guest scholar, and/or creative team

Prerequisites:
- Completed From Script to Stage (required) and Directing for the Stage (suggested)
Director
A student may propose to direct a project for their capstone experience. The project must be approved by the Chair of the department. The student will be responsible for the overall practical and creative interpretation of a script. They will oversee the entire process from concept, pre-production and design, to the final performance. Please note that this role requires a time commitment in the year and semester or summer before the semester of production. Duties include:

- Plan, attend, and lead every rehearsal, technical rehearsal, and dress rehearsal
- Present at every production meeting and performance
- Meet regularly with a faculty advisor and the Production Manager in preparation for and though the production process
- Project Proposal including dramaturgical script analysis and relevant research
- Establish and communicate audition process and needs to the production manager
- Negotiate casting with fellow DoT production directors
- Recruit and coordinate all creative and production personnel
- Casting and coordinating of all creative and production personnel
- Collaborate with designers on style and aesthetics of production
- Direct actors; offering guidance on character interpretation, pace, and flow of performance

Prerequisites:
- Completed Directing for the Stage, Acting II, and a design course (Lighting, Costume, or Scenic).
- Acted in a DoT production
- Designed or assistant designed on a DoT production
- Worked on stage management team for a DoT production
- Assistant directed on a DoT or professional production
- Completed a Co-op or internship at a professional theatre company
Actor Guidelines

The Department of Theatre expects student actors to conduct themselves as theatre professionals during both rehearsals and performances, following the standards and procedural guidelines of the Actors Equity Association (AEA) union. The AEA handbook states: “There are certain rules of conduct which all members are expected to observe as professionals for the dignity of the acting profession and the welfare of all their fellow performers." Though rehearsal can be exciting, the focus is on the honorable work of creating art, which requires attention, discipline, and respect from every member of the company, including the actors. These guidelines apply to ALL actors, whether you are undertaking the role for credit or not.

Expectations for actors:

• List all schedule conflicts with rehearsals/performances prior to casting. It is your obligation to adhere to the schedule once it is set. You should not ask the stage manager or the director to be excused for other activities or personal scheduling conflicts.
• If you are unhappy with your casting, you may decline the role. (We suggest that you have a dialogue with your faculty mentor before making a decision.) However, if you choose to accept it, it is your responsibility to bring a generous, positive, professional attitude to the process.
• Check the callboard or rehearsal emails daily.
• Arrive early, ready to work for every call – rehearsal or performance. If you will be late due to an emergency, contact the stage manager (SM) as soon as possible.
• Take precautionary measures to remain healthy during the R&P time period.
• Wear character appropriate rehearsal clothing, especially if your performance requires special movement, dance, or stage combat. If you’re not sure what to wear, ask your director or the stage manager to provide specific rehearsal items such as long skirts, corsets, hats, unusual footwear, etc.
• Respect others by remaining quiet and attentive while they are working, whether you are offstage or in the rehearsal space. Refrain from using personal cell phones or computers while people are working in the rehearsal room – wait until break or step outside the room.
• Come to rehearsal ready to work with your script/notebook and a pencil. Write down notes, blocking and direction you are given. It is your responsibility to remember them when the sequence is reviewed.
• Observe the off-book deadline. Call for line in rehearsal by staying in character with a minimum of hesitation and loss of focus.
• Respect the time of your collaborators. Refrain from disputing a director’s note or engaging in lengthy explanations or excuses when you are given direction. If you don’t understand the note or disagree, ask the director for some one-on-one time.
• Never give notes to a fellow actor and don’t accept them from other actors. If someone does offer you notes, say “Thank you but we should take that through the director.”
• Respect and collaborate with the stage manager, designers, and crew as much as your fellow actors.
• Don’t leave the rehearsal space without being dismissed by the stage manager or the director. Show respect for the theatre/rehearsal space by always cleaning up after yourself.
• Report to costume fittings on time and wearing appropriate undergarments.
• Sign in upon arrival for performance.
• Check your props prior to every performance. Props don’t belong to you, they belong to the theatre. After use, return them to their point of origin.
• Smoking, drinking and eating in costume are forbidden. Hang up your costume as instructed and keep your personal dressing area clean and orderly.
• Return any rented script material (sides, music, etc.) properly erased of your markings and in good order to the stage manager before closing night.
• Keep the drama onstage. When you are working on a production, emotions can sometimes run high among the acting company. If you are having a difficult time with your performance, avoid gossip and seek help from the director. If you are experiencing personal struggles, seek counseling and keep it outside of rehearsals and performances.
• You were cast over many other actors, and as such, have a responsibility to the student community. Please join your collaborators in bringing your highest degree of professionalism into each phase of the production process.