EDUCATION:

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY, Boston, MA
M.A. in Journalism, May 2008
GPA: 3.9

Master's Thesis: Interviewed investigative journalists at television stations in New England and documented how managers regularly censor investigative reports or stop them from airing all together. Researched the impact this has on the audience and revealed how the public is being cheated out of important news and information because some news outlets are putting profits ahead of journalistic standards.
